This calendar is designed to serve as a comprehensive listing of election-related dates set forth in Indiana statutes. Although the Election Division staff has taken every effort to ensure the accuracy of the information in this publication,

WHERE YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS ARE INVOLVED,
DO NOT RELY ON THIS CALENDAR.
INSTEAD, REVIEW THE LAW YOURSELF OR CONSULT YOUR ATTORNEY.

GENERAL RULES ABOUT USING THIS CALENDAR

DATES IN THIS CALENDAR ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE BY THE 2007 SESSION OF THE INDIANA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

This publication lists election dates from December 2006 through January 2008. The Indiana Code ("IC") citations included in this publication are current as of November 30, 2006.

If an election law specifies a final date for a particular filing, but no final hour of that day, the final hour for filing is NOON, prevailing local time. (IC 3-5-4-1) Every date appearing in this calendar must be read as having a noon deadline for the filing, unless another time is specifically stated. See also IC 3-5-2-24.5 to determine when a "filing" is considered completed.

A legal action required to be taken on a day when state offices are closed may be taken on the next following workday. (IC 4-1-2-2)

Whenever the election code requires that a legal action be taken at the office of a circuit court clerk or a political subdivision, and the final day for performing the action falls on a day when the office is not open to conduct public business (or the office is open, but it is a state holiday under IC 1-1-9), the legal action may be performed on the next day that the office is open for public business OR if the action to be performed is receiving a filing, through noon of the next day that the office is open for public business. (IC 3-5-4-1.5)

However, this rule does not apply to a legal action that must be taken by an individual or organization which is not a government office or officer for a political subdivision, such as the county chairman of a political party, or a meeting of the county organization of a political party. These legal actions must be taken no later than the date and time specified, even if the deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or other holiday under IC 1-1-9.

A "county voter registration office" refers to a circuit court clerk, a board of registration, the Lake County board of elections and registration, or the Tippecanoe County board of elections and registration. (IC 3-5-2-16.2)

In 2007, Indiana voters will elect individuals to serve in the following offices:

1. City offices, such as mayors, members of a city-county council, members of a city common council and city judges, and
2. Town offices, such as town council members, town clerk-treasurers and town judges, except those town offices elected in a general election year, and
3. The Town of Vernon in Jennings County will elect a mayor and other town officials under a special town charter.

CALENDAR DESIGNATIONS

The following designations are used throughout this publication to indicate the nature of certain filing dates and deadlines:

ABS

Indicates dates associated with absentee ballots.

CFA

Indicates dates associated with campaign finance.

CAN

Indicates dates associated with candidates.

FORMS

Where applicable, following the Indiana Code citation at the end of a calendar entry is a reference to the relevant Indiana state form. For example: Wednesday, January 24, 2007 is the first day an individual may file a declaration of candidacy for primary nomination. The state form for this filing is the CAN-42 form.

NOTE: IC 3-5-4-8 provides, in relevant part:

“Except as provided in subsection (e) [which concerns certain voter registration forms]... a person must use the most recent version of the form approved by the [Indiana Election] Commission to comply with [the election law]...”

If you are uncertain whether you have the most recent version of an approved form, contact the Indiana Election Division for information.

NOTE: IC 3-5-4-1.7 provides:

“Except as otherwise expressly authorized or required under [the Indiana Election Code], a filing by a person with a commission, the election division, or an election board may not be made by fax or electronic mail.”

There are some exceptions to this general rule involving campaign finance filings. If you are uncertain whether a filing may be made by fax or electronic mail, contact the Indiana Election Division for information.

NOTE: IC 3-5-4-1.9 provides:

Except as otherwise provided in this title, the election division, an election board, a circuit court clerk, a county voter registration office, or any other official responsible for receiving a filing under this title may not receive a filing that is offered to be filed after a deadline for the filing provided by this title.

If a county is not an absentee ballot central count county, the circuit court clerk or Lake and Tippecanoe County boards of elections and registration must visit the appropriate post office to accept delivery of absentee ballots at the latest possible time to permit delivery to the precincts before 6 p.m. (IC 3-11-10-11)

DEADLINE, by 3 p.m., in an absentee ballot central count county, for the circuit court clerk or Lake and Tippecanoe County boards of election and registration (or their agent) to deliver a certificate to each precinct setting forth the absentee ballots received by noon on election day. (IC 3-11.5-4-8)

DEADLINE, by 3 p.m., in counties which are not absentee ballot central count counties, for a county election board to receive notification that a voter who returned an absentee ballot, and is required to submit additional address confirmation documentation has filed the additional documents with the county voter registration office. The county election board must transmit a supplemental certified list of such voters to the appropriate precinct election board or attempt to notify the board regarding the content of the list. (IC 3-11-10-12)

In counties which are not absentee ballot central count counties, the county election board must deliver all absentee ballots to the appropriate polling place. The absentee ballots must be delivered in sufficient time to enable the precinct election board to vote the ballots during the time the polls are open. (IC 3-11-10-12) Note: This deadline does not apply to an absentee ballot mailed by an overseas voter. See entry for May 18, 2007.

DEADLINE, by 5 p.m., in an absentee ballot central count county, for the county election board or the Lake and Tippecanoe County boards of elections and registration to issue a certificate to a voter whose absentee ballot has been rejected, to permit that voter to vote at the precinct if otherwise qualified to do so. (IC 3-11.5-4-13)

DEADLINE, before close of polls, for inspector to check precinct poll list and any later certification from the county election board to determine whether an absentee voter has met the address confirmation documentation requirement, if applicable to that voter. If the voter has met this documentation requirement, then the absentee ballot is processed as an absentee ballot at the polls. If not, then the voter's absentee ballot is marked as a provisional ballot and returned to the county election board and processed as a provisional ballot. (IC 3-11-10-28)

DEADLINE, by 6 p.m., for a voter who voted a provisional ballot at the polls because the voter failed to provide required address confirmation documentation prior to voting, for the voter to file a copy of the required address confirmation documentation with the county voter registration office to permit the provisional ballot to be counted. If the voter fails to meet this deadline, the voter's provisional ballot is invalid and may not be counted. (IC 3-11-8-25; IC 3-11-8-25.2; IC 3-11.7-5-2(c))

DEADLINE, by 6 p.m., for a voter who returned an absentee ballot, and is required to submit additional address confirmation documents, to file the additional documents with the county voter registration office for the absentee ballot to be processed as an absentee ballot rather than a provisional ballot. (IC 3-11-4-18)

Tuesday, May 8, 2007 (continued)

At the close of the polls, the precinct election board must seal all provisional ballots and any spoiled provisional ballots in the required container. The inspector must return the container to the circuit court clerk at the close of the polls. (IC 3-11.7-2-4)

In counties using a ballot card voting system where votes are tabulated at a central location, all ballot cards must be sealed and delivered to the designated location immediately after the polls are closed and the number of ballot cards verified. (IC 3-12-3-1; 3-12-3-2)

In counties using paper ballots only, all ballots and election materials must be returned to the county election board immediately upon completion of their tabulation. (IC 3-12-2-9)

DEADLINE, by 3 p.m., in counties which are not absentee ballot central count counties, for a county election board to receive notification that a voter who returned an absentee ballot, and is required to submit additional address confirmation documents has filed the additional documents with the county voter registration office. The county election board must transmit a supplemental certified list of such voters to the appropriate precinct election board or attempt to notify the board regarding the content of the list. (IC 3-11-10-12)

In counties which are not absentee ballot central count counties, the county election board must deliver all absentee ballots to the appropriate polling place. The absentee ballots must be delivered in sufficient time to enable the precinct election board to vote the ballots during the time the polls are open. (IC 3-11-10-12) Note: This deadline does not apply to an absentee ballot mailed by an overseas voter. See entry for November 16, 2007.

DEADLINE, by 5 p.m., in an absentee ballot central count county, for the county election board or the Lake and Tippecanoe County boards of elections and registration to issue a certificate to a voter whose absentee ballot has been rejected, to permit that voter to vote at the precinct if otherwise qualified to do so. (IC 3-11.5-4-13)

DEADLINE, by 6 p.m., for a voter who returned an absentee ballot, and is required to submit additional address confirmation documentation to file the documentation with the county voter registration office for the absentee ballot to be processed as an absentee ballot rather than a provisional ballot. (IC 3-11-4-18)

DEADLINE, before close of polls, for inspector to check precinct poll list and any later certification from the county election board to determine whether an absentee voter has met the address confirmation documentation requirement, if applicable. If the voter has met the documentation requirement, then the absentee ballot is processed as an absentee ballot at the polls. If not, then the voter's absentee ballot is marked as a provisional ballot and returned to the county election board and processed as a provisional ballot. (IC 3-11-10-28)

DEADLINE, by 6 p.m., for a voter who voted a provisional ballot at the polls because the voter failed to provide required address confirmation documentation prior to voting, for the voter to file address confirmation documentation with the county voter registration office to permit the provisional ballot to be counted. If the voter fails to meet this deadline, the voter's provisional ballot is invalid and may not be counted. (IC 3-11-8-25; IC 3-11-8-25.2; IC 3-11.7-5-2(c))

At the close of the polls, the precinct election board must seal all provisional ballots and any spoiled provisional ballots in the required container. The inspector must return the container to the circuit court clerk at the close of the polls. (IC 3-11.7-2-4)

In counties using a ballot card voting system where votes are tabulated at a central location, all ballot cards must be sealed and delivered to the designated location immediately after the polls are closed and the number of ballot cards verified. (IC 3-12-3-1; 3-12-3-2)

In counties using paper ballots only, all ballots and election materials must be returned to the county election board immediately upon completion of their tabulation. (IC 3-12-2-9)

In a precinct using an electronic voting system, the inspector must announce after the close of the polls that the printout of precinct results is available for inspection by precinct election officials and watchers in precincts using a direct record electronic voting system. (IC 3-12-3.5-2)
